Passing Through The Veil of Illusion

Truth is not a concept; it is not something that your mind can ascent to and process, then all of sudden you know the truth...it is entirely something different. Preachers can recite scriptures that are truthful - that is all fine- but the act of hearing is not a product of your auditory canal. Truth is about embracing Christ, who is the truth; the spirit of truth. And the more you are able to receive Him, the more you be able to know the truth.

The more you are able to accept Christ on progressively deeper and deeper levels - which can only be achieved through the deeper work of the cross in your life - the more you will be able to truly hear what God is speaking.

It is only when the truth changes you, that you know you have heard ... at least on one of many levels. And the more you mature, the greater you will be able to hear the truth, and change even more deeply.

How does the scripture go? When you know the truth, what happens? The truth sets you free. That is a deeply mystical passage. What is the truth? Who is the way? Who is the life? It is the Lord Jesus Christ. He is the truth. He is the way. He is the life. And the more you know Him (the truth), the more you are set free, for the truth sets you free (John 8:32). Very mystical.

This takes it out of the realm of the mind, and out of the realm of the soul. And this is what has been progressively happening.

We are going to talk about our perception of reality, because God is re-wiring the sons. We have been on a long path of “un-learning” and letting go of the baggage we have picked up along our sojourn, and “re-learning” how to see.

How we see our reality around us is changing, based upon our ability to know the truth.

We have talked about quantum physics and some of the research that has been done over the years, and it is very, very interesting. Quantum physics deals with “reality” on a quantum level. The quantum level deals with matter so minute in size, that it is thought to be at the base level of creation. It is at this level that energy has a great deal of influence. Scientists have studied the correlation between a person’s paradigm and the reality in which they live. They have determined that as a person views reality through their given paradigm, that their internal viewpoint can actually influence the reality that they see.

In essence, through your personal paradigm, you are able to create a substantive reality - even if it is an illusion. That is how powerful the mind really is, and how it can affect reality based upon your personal paradigm. And that of course can be substantiated in the scriptures ... as a man thinks in his heart, so is he. Proverbs 23:7

So, what am I saying?

As you see reality around you, your reality will come into an alignment with your view. It may be true or not. It may entirely be an illusion, but you have the power to create an illusion as a substantive reality. This is why God has been dealing with His sons so much, to get them out of their limited paradigm - which is your mental freeway, you might say.

Imagine that the mind travels on a freeway. Everyone has their own unique view of “reality”, so each one might travel on a slightly different variant of that freeway. Let’s say your paradigm is on freeway I-95. Someone else might be on the I-10. Understand, everyone is on a different freeway, or different track, which has been carved out, within their mind. And they view reality along that track.

You might meet someone and wonder why they don’t see things the way you do. But the problem is they are on a slightly different freeway. They might be on the I-10 and you are over here on the I-95. The I-10 is how they view reality—that’s the groove their mind is in. Therefore their reality is the substantive manifestation of how they see. That is quantum physics. However quantum physics suggests that if you can change your way of seeing reality, then your reality will change to align to your new viewpoint.

You literally have the power to create what you believe.

If you believe in resurrection life enough, then that will become your reality. That becomes the truth; especially if you are aligned to God’s truth, and not an illusion. How much more powerful all of this is when you are aligned to the truth, and not the illusion.

Delivered from the Domain of Darkness

God has been delivering His sons out of the world, progressively. This has been a work in progress. The sons are being pulled out of the realm of illusion, lies, deception, and darkness. They are being delivered out of the vast darkness that exists on the face of the earth, and they are being pulled up into - and anchoring into - the realm of truth. Their paradigm is being shifted out of an adherence to the illusion, into being anchored in the truth.

He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son (1 Col. 1:13)

The assault that comes against the sons of God is to paint an illusion in front of them of limitation, and lack, until you buckle under that. When that happens you enter into the warfare trying to just fight it off or deal with it - when it is just an illusion. We call it, “paper dragons”. By understanding the power of the mind and the principle of quantum physics, we realize how very careful we must be not to respond to the illusion or the lie. Our response gives credence or weight to the lie, and helps to create it into a substantive reality. Be on guard!

Let’s talk about finances; this is pretty much in everyone’s face. You say, “Well I just don’t have any money to pay this bill. How can this be an illusion?” And so you are sitting there working it out. And I am saying, “It’s an illusion.” The enemy throws illusion after illusion on the sons and you either buckle under it or you rise above it. It is your choice to reject it, or let it become your paradigm. What is the answer? Throw your anchor into Him and anchor to the truth of His word until His truth becomes your paradigm.

If you think; “I don’t have the money to pay the bills.” “I don’t have the money”. Then you won’t. But what if your paradigm shifts? ... Quantum Physics then shifts. What happens. All of a sudden you have an abundance. Coincidence? I don’t think so.

Well how did that happen? “Well so and so paid me, or I got some money, or I got something in the mail.” Maybe. Who knows how it happened? But I can tell you how it was created. It was created because your paradigm stopped adhering to the lie and it began to adhere to the truth. And the principle of quantum physics came into action and boom. “As a man thinks in his heart so is he.”

The reality has to manifest according to the truth of what you see and how you perceive. Some people who aren’t even Christians can perform feats that are beyond human comprehension, human capability. Why can someone do that and others cannot?

Well I cannot explain to you what those individuals may have gone through in their life to create a certain mindset, a certain paradigm, but their paradigm did not accept the illusion of “cannot”, but rather the truth of, “Well yes. I can do that.” People can materialize stuff out of thin air. How? Because their paradigm accepts that as a truth. They don’t believe that it’s impossible.

How does the Word go “All things are possible to him that believes?” Matthew 19:26. All things. Someone might think, “Well, maybe not all things but maybe just this or this.” No. All things. What about the scripture that says; “you have been blessed with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places”? Ephesians 1:3 Every spiritual blessing. And the mind says “Well maybe not. Maybe not. Well, I don’t have this or this.” No. Every spiritual blessing.

This is why the renewal of the mind is so intrinsically tied into the manifestation of sonship. What is holding us back? Why haven’t we broken through into the deep, deep things of sonship? Why? Because we have not fully believed that we could.

There has been a lack within our paradigm and so quantum physics, once again, is at play here. As you see reality, reality will conform to what you believe, and that will be your manifested truth... “As a man sees in his heart so is he.”

This is a very deep word, because this is the impasse. We could also call this word, “What is the impasse to sonship?” ... because this is the impasse. This is why we are constantly admonished to wait upon the Lord, and to let go.

We are tired of creating reality out of illusion. The whole world is doing that. We have spoken about the ability that the leaders of this age have in creating a substantive reality by virtue of creating a global perception. It sounds like a lot of words, doesn’t it? But you get people on a global scale into a certain mindset and it will create a substantive reality. It is really very simple. You get enough people believing in the same line of thought, and it will create a substantive reality. And that is how the enemy has controlled the world to a great degree.

Believe me, we are all in the middle of this. A great fight is happening, a great battle. The deliverance of the sons of God will change the world, just by virtue of their becoming. The act of becoming is going to change everything.

We must realize that things are not as they appear. We must be very careful in our assessment of what we see. This has been an underscoring directive from the Lord, which has come numerous times.

It can be very interesting to study the events happening in the earth. There is a great deal of darkness upon the people of this earth, who have no ability to see. Some people might say, "We're in the end times. The judgments are unfolding." People can have many different interpretations of what is happening on a broad global scale, but they really do not see the larger picture; they only see what Satan would have them see.

"For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the powers, against the world forces of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places." (Ephesians 6:12)

It doesn't take that much revelation to realize that we are in the end times; that we are in the times when we will see the wrap up of God's dealings with mankind. But what we're talking about is something that goes far deeper, because we know that Satan is being cast out of the heavens. He has been a master manipulator of events and seasons which are unfolding in the earth, for he is the lie and the father of the lie. He is able to manipulate events and circumstances to create the illusion filling the earth.

How is this realm of illusion propagated? The media is a major part, because it is so easy to sway the emotions of people. A recent interview with a departing editor of the Guardian newspaper was quoted as saying that there are "billions of pieces of false news put out everyday." That is staggering; who is the engine behind this? Satan.

On one level, you can look at the governments of the world and what the leaders are doing. You say, "Well this is what's going on. The news is reporting this, so this must be true. And this is what is happening in this country and so forth." You say, "Well obviously this is happening." And on one very basic level it may be happening. But that is not the truth. That is not the reality. That is not really what is happening. You must be able to step back and have the spirit give you deep insight to see through the thin veil that exists yet within our mind and really see what is happening.

Look at the world as this massive chessboard. The people of this world are the pawns on this chessboard, and the chessboard is being played out by the realm of spirit. Events that are unfolding are all part of what is happening on this chessboard, as governments and people are all pawns of the realm of spirit, which seeks to both control and direct the destiny of mankind. If that is your perception, then you would not be that far off.

But, if you look closer, much closer, you will begin to see overlapping realities, functioning concurrently. There are many levels of the kingdom, and many levels that exist in the realm of spirit. To see one level is to see one manifested reality; but each level comes with its own "reality," and each level overlaps the other.

"In My Father's house are many dwelling places" (John 14:2)

This is a very complex topic, because many levels and /or realities are happening at the same time, we just don't know it. The level of "least" truth is of the natural plane, which is constantly affected by what is happening on the higher levels of the spirit realm.

Come up higher. Come up to the second level, the third level, the fourth level. You will begin to see a whole different plan that is playing out. It must be very interesting for the satanic world, as they have conspired for generations to control and direct the human race. They have a pre-determined outcome they are looking to achieve, as we know.

Believe me, the satanic spirit world is not stupid. Maybe the demons and really low orders are, but the higher orders of Satan's kingdom are not. There is a great deal of thought being put into the destruction of the human race, and of thwarting the plan of God, during this time.

When Satan lays out an agenda for a plan, he is not looking at what can be accomplished in the next three or four years. The Satanic host look and say, "Okay what can we accomplish in 100 years, 200 years, 500 years? How can we gradually move the human race down a certain path that will end up in destruction?" It doesn't take too much insight to go back four or five generations and see how much America has fallen, both in social values and in the demoralization of America. America, let alone the world, is going down a massive path headed to destruction. This is not just a product of the internet or our communication skills as a people; this has been very methodically planned out and orchestrated. Take another look; it is gaining a great deal more momentum right now.

Illusion or Reality?

The word keeps coming in the spirit, "Don't look with your eyes and feel that you can draw a conclusion, because things are not as they appear." This is why the sons of God have to be seers that see deep into the realm of spirit. They must see beyond the veil, because the only way the sons are going to move with the leverage to bring the judgments that have to be brought, is that they see deeply beyond the veil and the limitations that they have known.

Things are not as they appear. That needs to haunt us. Do not allow yourself to go down the rabbit hole being created by the satanic seed. "Oh, well this must be what's happening because this is what my eyes see. This is what the news reported." We must realize the dynamics behind the scene.

Even those who are being used as unwitting channels of Satan do not realize what is happening. People are becoming unwitting tools of the devil because the devil seeks access to the sons. You have to be so careful with your atmosphere. Guard your atmosphere, your spirit, and your eyesight.

It is imperative that we do not allow ourselves to go down the road of looking at things and saying, "Well, what I see, is what is. This must be the reality." It is not the reality, unless you are seeing it from a high vantage point of spirit. If you're looking to get something done in the spirit, then it only gets done when you hit it on the highest level, at the root. Whatever it is you need, whatever circumstance or issue you are dealing with, is not going to be resolved from this level. It will be resolved from the realm of spirit on a much higher plane and only because you have the insight to see, and it is that precious sight that gives you the leverage to deal that deathblow. This is why eyesight is so critical and cannot be overstated.

Why has the issue of bonds and relationships come up so many times over the years? Bonds and relationships, sympathy and obligation, are born of the soul and are the perfect conduits of transference and blindness. And when you're blinded, you're out of the game. What is worse is that when you are blindsided, you don't even know that you are blinded. That's just it. You don't know when you are blind. You don't know when you've lost sight. The whole church world is blind, as blind can be. Blind leaders of the blind. They all believe they see, but they know not that they have lost their sight.

To the sons who have this high calling, I say just one thing, “You’ve got to see. You’ve got to move beyond the appearance that Satan would present from this whole realm of illusion and realize there are several layers that are happening at the same time here. Probe deeply.”

What’s happening in the earth right now is not what you think. What is going on from nation to nation and wars and rumors of wars and all of this stuff? It’s not what it appears.

What’s going on in your life 90% of the time is not what it appears. Relationships that you have, are generally not what they appear. It’s time to wake up. When you really wake up, then the unclean transference and spiritual input into your life will no longer have access to you.

“Awake, awake, Clothe yourself in your strength, O Zion; Clothe yourself in your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city; For the uncircumcised and the unclean Will no longer come into you. Shake yourself from the dust, rise up, O captive Jerusalem; Loose yourself from the chains around your neck, O captive daughter of Zion.” (Isaiah 52:1-2)

Don’t assume you are awake; you are only a little bit awake. But you’ve got to wake up a lot more. And that comes with the maturity and that’s here now.

Do not forget that you are in the process of passing through the heavens, even as Christ did. And the first level you pass through is the veil of illusion that is over the entire earth.

This came at the time of printing which we feel needs to be shared:

Your High Calling

There are many unique callings resting upon those who have been brought forth during this time to walk in sonship. Not all are the same; in fact, I doubt if any 2 are the same. God is placing the sons exactly where He wants them. Each son has a unique calling that must be fulfilled to see God’s plan come to fruition. That could sound heavy, but there is a great responsibility resting upon those called to sonship.

What you are to do, as a unique part of the body (the sons), is unique unto you. The end goal that everything dovetails into is the establishing of the kingdom and the breakthrough of resurrection life. Christ is the first born of the many now coming to birth. As each person has a unique frequency or vibration, so each one of you has a unique calling that no one else can fulfill. Do you believe that? This is the truth. As Christ was sent, so you have been sent into the earth at this time.

God is equipping you with everything that you will need to fulfill your calling. The enemy would seek to demean you, to lessen your opinion of yourself, to have you compare yourself to another. You cannot do that. Because what you are to do, no one else will do, in bringing the completion of this timeline.

I hope this really sinks in, because this is how you must see yourself. Each son is so special unto the Lord, no one is any greater than another, and what you have to do no other can do. Any spirit that would say anything else is a lie, and comes from the father of lies; satan.

The first veil we must break through is the veil within us and over us. The veil that would separate us from the Lord; the veil that hides your awareness of who you are and how you are uniquely important to the Father's plan.

To this veil, we say BEGONE SATAN. Get behind me. I do not accept the lies and illusion that have been directed towards me or any of God's sons.

Be it done, NOW!
